

TUCKED AMONG THE BIG NAMES ARE CHARMING LOCAL TREASURES

WHERE TO SHOP

1. Authentic Provence

"All sorts of things for the garden and the house," says Sanchez. "Patio and loggia styles of European furniture, gifts, and antiques." 522 Clematis St., West Palm Beach, 561/805-9995, www.authenticprovence.com.

Baby Alexandra "Everything from Bratt Decor to Bugaboo to Kissy Kissy, plus a knowledgeable and friendly staff," says Lagae. PGA Commons, 4550 PGA Blvd., Ste. 105, Palm Beach Gardens, 561/626-4466, www.babyalexandra.com.

Barzina Unique finds from Vietnam, Istanbul, Paris, and beyond. A favorite is their pure silk, hand-embroidered robes. Open October through the end of May. 66 Via Mizner, 561/833-5834.

Blue Caribe "The most exquisite jewelry," says Huttig. "It's tucked into Mizner's courtyard, but true admirers manage to find it." 33 Via Mizner, 561/833-1454.

Bonpoint "I am addicted to their children's clothes," says Smith. 246 Worth Ave., 561/659-2119, www.bonpoint.com.

C. Orrico The place for Palm Beach signature stylings by Lilly

Pulitzer. "The three sisters make shopping here more like a family picnic," says Smith. 336 South County Rd., 561/659-1284, www.corrico.com.

Calypso "Perfect for everyday running around—flowy skirts, bright colors, and jeweled flips," says Lagae. 247-B Worth Ave., 561/832-5006.

Cashmere Buffalo "Stop by often to see what new treasures they have," says Lagae. 3709 South Dixie Hwy., West Palm Beach, 561/659-5441.

Charlotte Kellogg The shop, a favorite of Sanchez's wife, is known for its colorful dupioni silk and printed cotton looks described as "very Palm Beach." The fashions are designed and made locally. 256 Worth Ave., 561/820-2407.

Christofle Smith finds great gifts here: "Barware for men and frames for women," she says. 150 Worth Ave., 561/833-1978, www.christofle.com.

Classic Bookshop "It's next to Hamburger Heaven. My son and daughter love to go have a burger, and then pick out a book next door," says Smith. 310 South County Rd., 561/655-2485, www.classicbookshop.com.

Diane Firsten "Cool, casual, unique clothes and shoes,"

Huttig says. 23 and 28 Via Mizner, 561/833-2331.

2. Gypsy "A smaller version of Jeffrey (in New York and Atlanta)," says Smith. "With Chloé, Stella McCartney, Missoni, and Roberto Cavalli, the vibe is trendy but upscale." 226 Worth Ave., 561/832-1333.

House of Lavande Owned by Lagae and Smith. The fashion mags love the vintage couture jewelry—and so will you. 317 Peruvian Ave., Ste. 201, 561/802-3737, www.houseoflavande.com.

“If you are into Lilly Pulitzer, C. Orrico is the place to go. They carry Lilly for women, men, and kids, along with Trina Turk, Tibi, and Island Company.”
—Tracy Smith

Jennifer Garrigues Antiques and exotic accessories that fit the island's tropical vibe. 308 Peruvian Ave., 561/659-7376, www.jennifergarrigues.com.

Kassatly's "My family has shopped at Kassatly's for years," says McMakin. "It was my father's last stop every Christmas Eve for cashmere and huggable bathrobes." 250 Worth Ave., 561/655-5655.

Kemble Interiors Sanchez recommends Huttig and McMakin's shop. "The things you see here are not what you find in other stores. They understand what their clients want," he says. 294 Hibiscus Ave., 561/659-5556, www.kembleinteriors.com.

Leggiadro Everyone loves their great fitting pants. Huttig recommends their cotton tees and skirts for every day. 317 Worth Ave., 561/655-7105, www.leggiadro.com.

Leta Austin Foster Design your own china pattern, bed linens, lamps, stationery, and more. "The store also has beautiful linens and clothing for children," says Sanchez. 64 Via Mizner, 561/655-7367.

Mecox Gardens "Mecox, which is great for furnishings, always has the best coffee table books," says Lagae. 333 Worth Ave., 561/805-8611, www.mecoxgardens.com.

Nancy Corzine Filled with glass and crystal items, white upholstered pieces, and silver accessories, the designer's first retail location has a sophisticated feel. 375 South County Rd., 561/820-1501, www.nancycorzine.com.