

Setting the Table

Husband-and-wife team Jo Brickett and Mari Davda have started a new venture. Their firm, Brickett Davda, creates ceramic tableware; they currently have five patterns, in slightly warped shapes and muted colors. Nicole Farhi and Kelly Hoppen have commissioned exclusive lines.

Cell, above, and Lily, left, are two new designs from Brickett Davda in London.

Inspiration for the tents ranged from the Berber tribes to medieval tournaments.

Under Cover in West Palm Beach

The stylish tents and pavilions of Guido Toschi Marazzani Visconti are finally available stateside. Introduced in Europe by the Italian designer in 1987, they are now offered in the United States exclusively through Authentic Provence in West Palm Beach, Florida.

The coverings are handmade in durable waterproof materials and come in temporary structures or more permanent models.
