

LEFT: KIRK MCKOY © 2010 LOS ANGELES TIMES. REPRINTED WITH PERMISSION

1

2

3

4

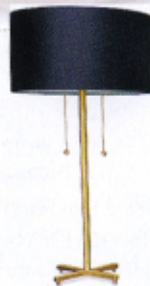

5

6

7

8

Get This Look

Instill your outdoor space with a touch of midcentury style à la Garrett Eckbo with these elegant accents. 1. Montrose Chair: Lawson-Fenning's steel indoor/outdoor chair allows a seamless transition between interior and exterior. ($985; lawsonfenning.com) 2. Mazagran Planter: Authentic Provence's sculptural container adds a touch of color to a muted palette. ($725; authenticprovence.com) 3. Cube Container: Ore's minimalist vessel, made from eco-friendly aluminum and steel, echoes the furniture and architecture's clean lines. (From $620; uniquegardendecor.com) 4. Landscape for Living: A comprehensive survey of Eckbo's modernist design philosophy. ($40; University of Massachusetts Press) 5. Bronze Uplighting: Die-cast aluminum lights from Hinkley Lighting brighten and accent an outdoor room. ($58; hinkleylightingexperts.com) 6. Stowe Bowl: Inspired by mountainous landscapes, Simon Pearce's handblown glass bowl has an asymmetrical rim and intricate layering. ($495; simonpearce.com) 7. Talamanca Fabric: Zingy stripes from Osborne & Little's Zancudo line provide eclectic, exotic flair. (Available to the trade; www.osborneandlittle.com) 8. Paul Lamp: A stately brass lamp casts a warm glow over a cozy seating area. ($675; lawsonfenning.com)