

HOMETOWN

authority gone green.

SUSAN HOFHERR, EUROPEAN EXPATRIATE AND OWNER OF AUTHENTIC PROVENCE, RUMINATES ON PRESTIGIOUS PALM BEACH SHOPPING STRIPS, CREATIVE ORGANIC CUISINE AND ETERNALLY CLASSIC FASHION ACCESSORIES.

01

02

01

CLASSICALLY CONTENT

Burberry is my luxury of choice and there is nothing better than splurging on the iconic brand's current collection. I often find the best accessory statements at the distinguished Breakers Shops located in the Breakers Hotel. It is a prime destination for enduring, classic pieces of superior design. Burberry's creations are sleek and elegant, remaining purposeful and chicly functional. burberry.com

02

AL FRESCO

I revel in walking down the impressive Worth Avenue, a quaint shopping district in Palm Beach that abounds with luxury brands. Definitely the perfect haven for rest and relaxation as there aren't even street signs to direct you—one must follow the salt in the air in order to reach the ocean. worth-avenue.com

03

FRIENDLY FOODIE

A delicious Palm Beach locale not to be missed is Darbster, a delightful vegan bistro that serves innovative, natural and organic dishes. Owners Ellen and Alan Gould donate the entirety of the restaurant's profits to The Darbster Foundation, which funds local animal rescue efforts. Be sure to cap off your meal with a delicious raw brownie with dates. darbster.com

04

GARDEN FLAVOR

Authentic Provence is my little slice of Southern France right in the middle of downtown West Palm Beach. The store envelops you in scents of lavender and fig trees, while your eyes are entertained by rarities from throughout Europe. Though you'll mostly find garden antiques from France and terra cotta via Italy, I also really love the scent collection from Geodesis, which are full fragrances made in only natural scents. authenticprovence.com

03

04

