

1. A set of Dennis & Leen's landscape studies would be smashing in a foyer; to the trade, 310-652-0855. 2. Use the Prestige vase and pedestal from Accents of France to create a memorable focal point; $7,343, 323-653-4006. 3. Atelier Fornasetti's Giardino All'Italiana box is a lovely desktop pencil corral; $609, 011-39-02-8965-8040. 4. The Emilia dress and Peggy sunglasses by Tory Burch turn garden design into fabulous fashion; $450 and $195, 866-480-8679.

5. A sundial from Authentic Provence has rustic allure; $1,180, 561-805-9995. 6. Fill a pair of Treillage's Trellis cachepots with topiaries and place atop a mantel; $165 each, 855-873-4552. 7. The Site Corot Tuileries porcelain plate is a cute catchall for keys; $85, 323-424-4667. 8. With Michael S. Smith's Fancy Garden rug for Mansour Modern, the primrose path is gorgeously underfoot; $9,800, 310-652-9999. FOR MORE GARDEN-INSPIRED OBJECTS, SEE VERANDA.COM

GOING FOR GREEN

With more than 100 works, including a rendering by Childe Hassam (left), "The Art of the Louvre's Tuileries Garden," on view at the Toledo Museum of Art in Ohio, explores the glory of Paris's beloved park. In The Gardener of Versailles ($27, Rizzoli), the palace's horticulturist shares an intimate inside look. From Marie-Antoinette's Garden ($50, Flammarion) is a chronicle of the Petit Trianon, the French queen's famed retreat.

