▲ The Sunset collection of chaises/lounge chairs, a collaboration between Roche Bobois and The Rockwell Group, brings streamlined, modern style outdoors. Designed to easily convert from lounger to sofa with a detachable back frame, pieces in the collection boast a range of headrest positions and interchangeable cushions. Available in blue (pictured), bronze or white. roche-bobois.com

▲ French outdoor-furniture company Sifas has introduced a new floor lamp made of woven polyester fiber-coated in water-resistant PVC. The 45-inch-tall lamp, which sits atop slender lacquered-aluminum legs, is available in blue, gray or brown. A rechargeable LED bulb is protected within a frosted-glass globe. sifas.com

▲ Sunbrella's Dimension Collection features a mix of flat and jacquard weaves in nine distinctive patterns and a range of textures. Suitable for cushions and upholstery, the line is made with the brand's signature durable, weather-resistant fabric. Pictured: Array in the Sangria and Calypso colorways. sunbrella.com

▲ Arper's chic Pix collection of ottomans is now available for outdoor use. A waterproof polyurethane membrane protects the foam interior; choose from a line of durable, fast-drying polyester fabric covers in an array of bold hues. The ottomans come in one-, two- and three-seat sizes; five-seaters can be ordered. arper.com

▼ Designed by Kettal Studio, the Dots Collection indoor-outdoor lamp features an adjustable aluminum structure, an LED bulb and a waterproof switch. Available in 30 color options, as a floor lamp with a circular base or a planter lamp (pictured) that can be fastened to the ground. kettal.com

Based on a 1965 design by Michel Ducaroy, the modular Saparella is an indoor-outdoor collection of chairs with convex and concave profiles that can stand alone or be linked together to form a settee via a concealed, stainless-steel mechanism. Constructed with polyurethane Bultex foam covered in water-resistant fabric. ligneroset-dc.com

▲ Geoluxe's newly released Calacatta Gluxe is a marble-look engineered surface characterized by vivid gray veining and a pure-white background. Formulated for indoor-outdoor use, the product is scorch-, stain-, heat- and UV-resistant; the veins run throughout each slab, eliminating the need for mitering. geoluxe.com

▲ The clean-lined Flet outdoor-seating collection from Room & Board includes chairs and ottomans crafted of woven polypropylene rope that's soft, durable and UV-resistant. Cushions are made of quick-drying foam and covered in Sunbrella fabric for easy maintenance. roomandboard.com

▲ Tuuci's Eclipse Cabana conjures an airy outdoor living room. Its powder-coated aluminum frame supports roof and wall slats that come in a powder-coated or wood-look finish. A retractable Roman shade is made of a durable, UV-resistant mesh fabric and is available in six colors. tuuci.com

▲ A common sight in 19th-century France, Bac à Oranger planters displayed citrus trees and topiary, often flanking grand entrances in stately style. Authentic Provence has recreated these planters out of wood-look aluminum. Available in four sizes and 12 colors, with French finials and optional brass rings. authenticprovence.com

▲ Dedon has debuted two limited-edition color and material combinations for its popular MBrace seating collection, designed by Sebastian Herkner. Carrara and Marrone are woven out of handmade maritime rope from Italy and engineered fiber by Dedon to create a fresh look. dedon.com ■
